APR 19 1919

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR HIM NOW?

Words and Music by McDermott and Heagney

THE WINLEE MUSIC CO.
145 W. 45TH STREET
NEW YORK

M1646
STARMER .H

What Are You Doing For Him Now?

Words and Music by
Mc DERMOTT and HEAGNEY

Marcia

f

Voice

mf

We have won; the war is ov - er, now the boys are com-ing home; They are thinking of the fu-ture anx-ious - ly. Some are ill and some are wound-ed, and they've left a few be- hind, In the bat-tles that have brought in vic-to - ry. We have won, but they have lost in ev - 'ry way; You are cheer-ing, and you're proud of them you say But

When you took him from the cit - y, from the vil-lage and the farm, It cost him more than you will ev - er know. He had planned a hap - py fu - ture with the ones he loved at home, Un-til du - ty called and then he had to go. Sure-ly some-thing more than cheer-ing is his due; For the sac - ri-fice he made for me and you So

Copyright MCMXIX by The Winlee Music Co.

Chorus

What are you do - ing for your he - ro now? The fighting's past, he's put a way his gun.

p -f

Don't pet him or car - ress him, Get back of him, God bless him, And pay him for the work that he has done Just re - mem-ber he's no beg - gar, When you ask him of his plans, He'll mur-mur "Oh I'll get a - long some how" He an-swered Du-ty's call, Did his best and gave his poco rall.

all, And what are you do - ing for him now? Say, now?

1 2

a tempo

fz

456936