©CLE456963

SEP -8 1919

Was It An Empty Promise?

By

W. R. MARSHALL

M1646
.M

PUBLISHED BY
Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

Was It an Empty Promise?

WR MARSHALL

Moderato

mp

We read to him con - scrip - tion, He had no choice he went, He He's lived up to tra - di - tions, Hes carved for us new fame, He p donned the wait - ing kha - ki, As if on ven - geance bent, We has up - held our Old Glo - ry, Shes free from an - y stain, Now said to him, Be - faith - ful Your job here waits for you, Our hes re - turn - ing to us, Shall he find us all mere men, For fears our hopes are with you, We are for the flag and you.

got - ten that sac - red pro - ise, You will get your job a gain.

Copyright, MCMXIX, by W.R.Marshall

CHORUS Allegretto non troppo

mf

Was it an emp - ty prom - ise? Were those just i - dle words When we sent him 'cross the o - cean, To cross with a ty - rant swords, Or shall he find us wait - ing,

True as the sol - diers true; To grasp his hand and mur - mur, Your old job waits for you.

468878