OCT 10 1919

MY WELCOME'S GONE SINCE I QUIT WEARING THE UNIFORM

©CIE462055

Lyric by
Fred C. Gillitt
Music by
J. Edward Woolley

M 1646
.S5

Published by The FRED C. GILLITT COMPANY
420 Shubert Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

My Welcome's Gone Since I Quit Wearing the Uniform

Lyric by
FRED C. GILLITT

Music by
J. EDWARD WOOLLEY

Allegro Moderato

Till Ready

Where are the smiles I used to get? Where is the au - to ride and dain-ty cig-ar - Where are the wel - comes that I got? Where are the in - vi-ta-tions, gee, I got a ette? Where are the maid - ens so sweet and fair? Where are the kiss - es sent me lot! Where are the dain - ties and things so sweet? Where is the kit - chen and the o - ver there? How I used to sit 'mid a soc-ial whirl, How I used to things to eat? How I used to loaf in the swell ho - tels, How I used to cap - ture ev - 'ry girl; How maid-ens prayed for me thru strife and storm, for min - gle with the swells; Mil - lion-aires' daugh - ters hung right on my arm, for

All rights reserved

Copyright MCMXIX by Fred C. Gillitt

Internation copyright secured

CHORUS

then I wore the un-i - form.
then I wore the un-i - form.

I've lost my pull ..... with the beau-ti - ful

p-f

..... Since quit-ing the un - i - form; ..... With tilted chin and low'r - ing eye, sweet maid-ens they now pass me by. I used to get

..... ev - 'ry cute brunette,..... Each blonde fell for the kha-ki charm; ..... How sad to know my welcome's gone Since I quit wear-ing the u - ni - form. I've form.....

1 2

Rayner Dalheim & Co., Chicago

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO

Mother's Dearest Treasure

Sung by Gordon B. Clarke, Boy Soprano.

Music by W. C. Mc CULLOUGH
Words by FRED C. GILLITT

Moderato

Poco Lento_Voice

Ba - by's shoes so cute and sweet. Cov - er ba - bys dain - ty Ba - by's grown and gone a - way. Far from home his foot - steps feet. Hap - pi - ness shines o'er the place Through the smile on stray. But his smile still haunts the room Like the sun - shine ba - bys face. Ba - bys shoes now hid a - way. Bring back through the gloom. And at times a brok - en toy. Fills an joys of yes - ter - day. Mem-'ries, mem-'ries oh so sweet. Of ach - ing heart with joy. Mem-'ries, mem-'ries oh so sweet. Of rall

rall

Copyright MCMXIX by Frederic C. Gillitt.

471740